Application Dossier

Castagnole delle Lanze is an Italian village located in Piedmont in the District of Asti, bordering on the district of Cuneo. It has a geographical and territorial location that places it on the edge of Langhe and Monferrato. The name of Castagnole delle Lanze is made up of two parts: the first comes from the Latin name “castinea” that means “small chestnut” and the second one takes the name of the aristocrat “Lancia” family who owned the territories between 1190 and 1206. Castagnole delle Lanze is divided into two urban areas: the old village, located in the hilltop, and the new area called “San Bartolomeo”. The old village has just awarded an important recognition: it has been admitted in the association “I borghi più belli d’Italia”. Last year the “orange flag” of the Italian Touring Club has been assigned to Castagnole delle Lanze.

In 2012 the Municipality was awarded with the Call “Volunteer for Europe”. Castagnole delle Lanze has an extraordinary richness: it can be proud of the presence of many volunteer organizations active in sports and culture, social and leisure activities in favor of children, young people and adults. In those days, volunteers from Germany, France, Poland, Hungary and Italy compared their experiences: they also decided, officially, to help each other in case of natural disasters.

Every year, thanks to the twinning experiences, about 250 participants are involved. They are always hosted by local families in Castagnole delle Lanze. The foreign delegations usually reach our village on the occasion of the Barbera Festival “Di Cortile in Cortile”. About eighty families are involved in hospitality. People from Castagnole, as well, visit the twinned towns on the occasion of their celebrations and festivals.

The Municipality always works together with the Twinning Association that has got its own Staff Board with a President and two Vice Presidents including the Municipal Councilor for European Policies.

In March 2019, the Mayor Calogero Mancuso signed the last Twinning Agreement with the Municipality of Valledolmo (PA), the first with an Italian town. Our towns have been closed since the sixties because of an immigration flow that brought a lot of people from Sicily to Piedmont and in particular to our village. Nowadays in Castagnole lives a large group of people from Valledolmo that are well integrated into our community.

On Friday 11th March 2022 a “March for Peace” was organized by the Municipality and the Twinning Association in solidarity with the Ukrainian people and against all wars and fighting around the world.
